

What's up?

Always fly drones at least 50 metres from substations and power lines. Drone incidents involving electrical equipment can result in injury or even death.

